Part 1 <https://thebibleproject.com/explore/revelation/>

Part 2 <https://thebibleproject.com/explore/revelation/>

Homework

Reading:

Day 1 - Psalm 2 and Revelation 1-4

Day 2 - Psalm 68 and Revelation 5-9

Day 3 - Psalms 93, 110 and Revelation 10-14

Day 4 - Psalms 132, 140 and Revelation 15-19

Day 5 - Psalm 150 and Revelation 20-22

Please consider slowing down and reading Revelation over the next two weeks. It may feel less overwhelming! Some people work best under a deadline, while others want to take their time to get it done. You choose - but please don't skip this powerful book! It's the last word in God's love story to you. It's worth reading!

Extra Credit -

Reflection:

- 1) Who are we told this revelation is from?
- 2) What is the reason for this revelation?
- 3) How was this revelation made known?
- 4) Who is called blessed and why?
- 5) Who is the author of this revelation?
- 6) Who is this written to?
- 7) How does John, in the greeting, describe
 God the Father?
 Jesus?
- 8) What does John say Jesus has done for us?
- 9) Why has Jesus loved us and freed us from sin?

10) How does God describe Himself?

What does all of this ^^ say to you about God?

What verse(s) of Revelation resonates most with you?

Why should we read the book of Revelation?

Most times, Revelation is summarized as “God wins.” Now that you’ve read Revelation, what does this mean to you?

How does this make you feel?
