

CHAPTER TWO ~ Family Matters

Beginning notes:

Please turn in your Bibles to _____, where we will meet today's character.

One important detail about _____ can be found in verse _____.

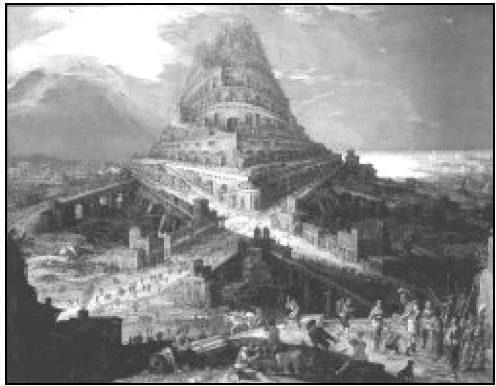

Our girl _____ is _____. And she is _____ to a guy named _____.

NOTE: The name _____ means _____.

Notes on her background:

If we were to go back and read _____, we would read about the construction of the _____, located in the southern region of Babylonia, not far from the city of _____.

Genesis 11:4 says, "And they said, 'Come, let us build for ourselves a city, and a tower whose top will reach into heaven, and let us make for ourselves a name; lest we be scattered abroad over the face of the whole earth.'"

1

Notes on this:

NOTE: "Babel" is linked to a Hebrew word meaning _____.

Back to our story -

Abram's father (Genesis 11:31) took his family away from _____. They likely traveled approximately _____ miles NW, along an ancient trade route that paralleled the Euphrates River, to the town of _____. (See map.)

¹ <https://biblescienceguy.wordpress.com/2013/04/03/4-tower-of-babel-when/>

Notes on this:

Let's read Genesis 12:1-3.

God promised Abram:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

² <https://www.bible-history.com/maps/3-old-testament-world.html>

Read Genesis 12:4-5. Notes on this:

To continue with our story, circumstances forced Abram to move on again. There was an extreme famine in the land, so Genesis 12:10 tells us that they picked up and moved toward a more fertile land: _____.

Let's read Genesis 12:11-13. Notes on this:

Read Genesis 12:14-16.

The Hebrew word for _____ refers to her _____.

Notes on this:

It was customary in those days to pay a _____ to the closest living _____ who was _____.

Notes on this:

Sarai considered herself an _____ of this story. But she wasn't.

Read Genesis 12:17-20.

Notes on this:

In those days, _____ was the basis for wealth.

God protected _____ and _____ in this story. Do you see it?

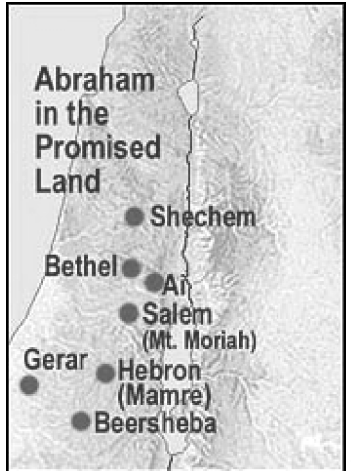

NOTE: Genesis 13:2 tells us, "Now Abram was very _____ in _____, in _____ and in _____."

Notes on this:

Over the course of the next several chapters, Abram had many adventures and chats with God. God repeatedly reassured Abram of His promises to him. Each time, God expanded the Promise to include a little more detail and insight.

Now fast-forward to Genesis 20. Background notes:

We pick up our story in Genesis 20:1-2.

Read Genesis 20:3-7. Notes on this:

If we read Genesis 20:12-13, we learn something new about Sarah and Abraham's relationship.

"This is my _____. He is also my _____."

Notes on this:

God _____ her. He _____ her... He _____ her... He _____ her. He brought her _____.

Jeremiah 29:11 says: "For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans for hope and a future."

His plans... _____!

³ http://www.jesuswalk.com/abraham/1_call.htm