ACTS CH. 8-12

Apostle - one who is sent

Disciple - follower

Galatians 1:11-18

11 For I would have you know, brothers, that the gospel that was preached by me is not man's gospel.^[a] 12 For I did not receive it from any man, nor was I taught it, but I received it through a revelation of Jesus Christ. 13 For you have heard of my former life in Judaism, how I persecuted the church of God violently and tried to destroy it. 14 And I was advancing in Judaism beyond many of my own age among my people, so extremely zealous was I for the traditions of my fathers. 15 But when he who had set me apart before I was born,^[b] and who called me by his grace,¹⁶ was pleased to reveal his Son to^[c] me, in order that I might preach him among the Gentiles, I did not immediately consult with anyone;^[d] 17 nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me, but I went away into Arabia, and returned again to Damascus. 18 Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to visit Cephas and remained with him fifteen days.

BOOK

An illustration of a bustling outdoor market scene. In the foreground, a woman in a white dress carries a large brown jar on her back, walking past a young boy in a blue tunic. In the center, another woman in a white dress carries a large basket of produce on her head. To the right, a man with a beard and a pink shirt sits at a wooden stall, working with a red cloth. The background shows a large, open-sided structure with a yellowish canopy, possibly a market stall or a temporary shelter, with other figures and goods visible. The sky is bright and hazy, suggesting a sunny day.
